. . . It gives me great pleasure to be on the air once again over XEG, and to extend to all who are in tune a hearty welcome to another message from The Mission Trail of Guthrie, Oklahoma.

Now, I have a special treat for you at this time. Kathleen is home from California from where she has been helping with gospel work in Mexico. She is present with me now, and, no doubt, you would like to hear her voice. Here now is Kathleen.

(Kathleen) Thank you, Daddy. I enjoy being here, meeting the different ones.

Well, it is certainly good to have you back again! Now, first of all, I understand the weather was rather turbulent when you came in Thursday night.

(Kathleen) Yes, when we left the L. A. airport, it was a little cloudy, but it wasn't, however, until we were over Texas I began to notice a little bit of light outside the plane. As I watched it I could see that there was lightning in some of the clouds close to the plane. There was quite a bit of wind for I could feel the plane rocking; however, as I looked to the Lord I could feel the winds lessening, but because of the solid clouds below us the pilot felt that we wouldn't stop in Fort Worth, Texas as was scheduled but go on to Oklahoma City. The clouds broke just before we got to the City so that when we landed, we had to descend rather rapidly, but the Lord had His hand over the plane so we had a safe trip.

Well, I will confess it was a relief to know that you had arrived safely, and we thank God for his protection. Now, tell us about the interest shown by those who have been attending the services in Mexico.

(Kathleen) The people take quite a bit of interest in the services. They love to choose the songs which they sing. Of course, nearly everyone has a song they want to sing. One of the elder sisters had a song that she wanted to sing, but she just never got a chance to select it. We always took her home after service, so as she got out of the truck she said, "Sister, when we have service the next time, couldn't we please sing 'Oh, Que' Amigo'?" which in English is "What a Friend We Have in Jesus".

Thank you, Kathleen, for that interesting information about how God is calling for people of every nation to serve Him. Now, please give a little message in Spanish to all who are listening in Mexico.
